Valera Global Wins Limo Digest's Prestigious 'Large Operator of the Year' Award

The honor recognizes Valera Global's many achievements and reputation for excellence

New York, NY; November 28, 2007 – Valera Global, the premier provider of executive transportation solutions, is the 2007 winner of Limo Digest's Large Operator of the Year Award. Valera Global received the award at the 12th Annual Industry Achievement Awards Banquet, hosted by Limo Digest, on Tuesday, November 6th at the Trump Taj Mahal Casino and Resort in Atlantic City, NJ.

Limo Digest Publisher, Chris Weiss said, "Valera Global received this award because the company embodies leadership, integrity and dedication to the industry as a whole. We look for those operators who have not only achieved success financially, but those who act as mentors to their peers, as well as are pillars in their local community. Valera Global is an outstanding example of that."

Valera Global operates the 14th-largest chauffeured fleet in the U.S. and serves a rapidly-expanding network of international destinations. The award comes as the company celebrates its 20th year in business, re-launches its brand, expands its service offerings and commits to greener operations by offsetting 100% of its carbon foot print.

This year marked the company's rebranding from Computer Car to Valera Global and the introduction of its levels of service program (Platinum, Gold and Silver). In addition Valera Global, now provides custom event and road show travel solutions, to create one-of-a-kind transportation programs for clients. Recently, the company announced plans to join the Chicago Climate Exchange (CCX), a greenhouse gas emission registry, reduction and trading system. The alliance makes Valera Global the first ground transportation service provider in the industry, and the world, to join CCX.

Robert Mackasek, CEO of Valera Global, said, "It's an honor to be recognized by our peers in the industry. We have been providing luxury ground transportation services for more than 20 years and we strive for excellence in all aspects of our business on a daily basis. Winning this award celebrates our achievements and it also strengthens our commitment to provide an unparalleled customer experience."
